Mayor's Report

The Liquor Store Application for Riverdale & Kenilworth Avenue has been withdrawn. Letter written by Vivian Shih read in reference to the withdrawn application. Mayor contacted Councilman Eric Olson who has had direct contact with Mr. Lee to confirm the application has been withdrawn. Mayor stated that the town may want to make a clearer and broader statement on limiting the amount of liquor stores in the town. Mayor sent a letter today on behalf of the town asking that all liquor stores be limited to not opening until 10 a.m. or later. Mayor stated that the town's engineer is gearing up for the town-wide infrastructure projects that will complete getting the town's streets up to a good standard. Mayor signed a requisition to begin a survey for the trolley trail hiker/biker trail along the west side of town. Mayor reported that to provide top quality services to the town the staffing level in the Police Department needs to be 21 officers and 6.5 Civilian positions. Public Works staffing needs to be at 14. Mayor reported this year we need at least one person coordinating economic development in the town. Mayor stated that we need to improve efficiency in the town and change the way we do business to improve the town at lower costs. Mayor stated we don't see any significant new income coming in over the next year or two but there are ways we can save money. Mayor suggested privatizing certain areas of Public Works such as trash removal, tree management and street painting. Mayor spoke about a meeting held with Congressman Hoyer concerning the communication between the police departments and the possibility of bringing the dispatching departments of neighboring municipalities together. In an effort to save money Mayor would like to look into maybe shifting funds from Public Works to the Police Dept. and general government, however there are no proposals at this point.
